Answer to question to public tender "Market Trends – Nature as a Driver for Sustainable Tourism and Local Development":

Question 4

Translations costs are not included in the budget but the report should be written in English. Does this mean that the partner group will accept a report written by the external consultant in English without the use of translator / English proofreader?

Answer

The partner group represents English, Norwegian, Dutch, German and Danish users including local SME's. We expect a report that can be presented to readers at all level in all participating countries, is easily read and understood by the local users. A report that causes comments or confusion due to language barriers is not acceptable.
